House Appropriates 500 Millions to Effect Reconstruction Bill

DAWES STUDIES WAR FINANCE PLAN FOR IDEAS OF OPERATION

MAIN BURDEN OF ACTIVITIES WILL FALL ON SHOULDERS OF FORMER VICE PRESIDENT

Washington, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—The house today passed without a record vote the $500,000,000 appropriation bill providing initial capital for the reconstruction finance corporation.

The appropriation bill was taken up immediately when the house convened. There was no debate as the bill was passed at once. It now goes to the senate, which is in adjournment until Monday.

As president of the new $2,000,000,000 reconstruction finance corporation, Charles C. Dawes will become virtually a temporary dictator over the stock business of America.

Expecting to begin functioning next week, and advised that the main burden of operations of this gigantic anti-depression effort will fall on his shoulders, Dawes is studying methods of the war finance corporation, miniature predecessor of the present organization. He is interviewing those who participated in that work, and expects to draft many of them because of the similar methods to be followed.

In practice the enormous power of the corporation will be exercised through Dawes. Industries and banks that are gasping for breath can get federal oxygen offered by this gigantic corporation only with his approval. His tremendous power will come from the fact that he has a majority of the corporation's board solidly with him in Eugene Meyer, Jr., governor of the federal reserve board and chairman of the finance corporation board; Secretary of Treasury Mellon, and Farm Loan Commissioner Dextor. They indicated they will leave actual operations largely to Dawes because of other heavy activities.

The corporation is relieved of responsibility only in the case of agriculture and interstate steam and electric roads. The secretary of agriculture will supervise lending of $50,000,000 to $200,000,000 allotted for emergency aid to farmers suffering crop failures. The Interstate Commerce commission will pass on transportation loans.

HOOVER SIGNS LAND BANK BILL GIVING ADDITIONAL CAPITAL

AUTHORIZES INCREASE OF $125,000,000 IN CAPITALIZATION OF FARM LOAN UNITS

Washington, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—President Hoover today signed the federal land bank bill authorizing an increase of $125,000,000 in the capitalization of the farm loan banks throughout the country.

The president in signing this legislation for farm relief said: "I'm glad to sign the third of our reconstruction measures—that providing additional capital to the federal land bank. It should:

(A) Reinforce the credit of the federal land bank system, and reassure investors in land bank bonds.

(B) Thus enable the banks to obtain capital for farmers at reasonable rates; and

(C) Above all bring relief and hope to many borrowers from the banks who have done their honest best but, because of circumstances beyond their control, have been unable temporarily to make the grade."

Peter Collisto and Leslie Cooper, of Crosby, were taken by Sheriff Frank E. Little today to Grand Rapids for arraignment before Judge A. L. Thwing.

The two have signified intentions of pleading guilty to the robbery of a store at Crosby.

Four Killed Enroute Church to Cemetery

Washington, Ind., Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Four persons were killed today when their automobile was struck by a Baltimore & Ohio railroad passenger train.

The victims were Mrs. Marion Graves, her son, Plus, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

They were en route from a church to a cemetery after a friend's funeral.

Report Plot Kidnap Dawes

Prompts Introduction of Bill Making Kidnaping and Holding for Ransom Punishable by Death

Washington, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—A report that kidnapers were threatening to seize and hold Charles G. Dawes, former ambassador to the Court of St. James and now president of the $2,000,000,000 reconstruction finance corporation, was relayed today to Senator Roscoe Patterson, Republican, Missouri.

Patterson, who has introduced a bill in the Senate to enable federal officers to deal with interstate kidnaping, said the report had come to him from a Chicago newspaper. The bill he has introduced is sponsored by Chicago and St. Louis organizations and soon will have a Senate sub-committee hearing.

Col. Robert Isham Randolph of the "Secret Six" anti-racketeer organization in Chicago, conferred yesterday with Senator Patterson, Republican, Missouri, who has introduced a bill to enable federal officers to deal with interstate kidnapers.

The bill would make interstate kidnaping and holding for ransom punishable by death or by imprisonment for so long a long term as the court desired.

Here are two of the chief officers of President Hoover's new $2,000,000,000 reconstruction corporation, now being organized to stabilize banks and businesses and create confidence. Charles G. Dawes, left, is president of the corporation, and Eugene Meyer, right, governor of the Federal Reserve Board, is chairman of the directors of the finance company, which will make loans to banks, building and loan companies and other organizations, according to tentative plans.

FOOD PRICES, RENTS, OTHER COMMODITIES IN DECLINE TO LOWER COST OF LIVING

Washington, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Cost of living in 32 representative American cities dropped three per cent in the past six months, the bureau of labor statistics reported today.

On the basis of its semi-annual survey, the bureau found that from June, 1931, to December, food prices declined 3.4 per cent; clothing, 7.2 per cent; rents, 4.1 per cent; house furnishing goods, 5.6 per cent; and miscellaneous items, 0.6 per cent.

All cities included in the report showed decreases in rental costs ranging from 0.2 per cent to 11.8 per cent. In the fuel and light group an increase of 1.6 per cent was shown. The bureau attributed this to the seasonal changes in coal prices.

The cost of living dropped 9.3 per cent during the entire year from December, 1930, to the corresponding month in 1931.

All but two cities reported decreases in food prices ranging from 1.5 to 8 per cent. In one place an increase of 2.5 per cent was shown, and another reported no change.

House furnishing prices declined in the entire group.

GUARD CHINATOWN FEARFUL OUTBREAK IN HATCHET SLAYING

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Chicago's Chinatown guarded closely today all clues to the hatchet slaying of the Rev. Henry Frank Chan, 40, Chinese pastor called to serve the Oriental community by the city's most prominent divines.

The sinister hand of the hatchetman, traditional executioner of expatriated Chinese, was seen in the crime by police confronted with the blood-stained weapon itself as their only clue.

Chan's body was found in his quarters in the basement of the Chinese Church of Christ where it had lain undiscovered probably three days.

The typical Oriental slaying of Chan, known as an opponent of brutal tong feuds, shocked the city's ministers. He came here from the Pacific coast two years ago at the call of the Chicago Church federation. His church in the shadow of the Chinese "city hall" was known as the only Chinese interdenominational church in America.

HAND OF NEW GANG OF EXTORTIONISTS SEEN IN KIDNAPING

Denver, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Abduction of Benjamin F. Bower, wealthy bakery official, was marked today by an effort of extortionists who had nothing to do with the kidnaping to collect the $50,000 ransom named by Bower's captors, when they dragged him from his home Tuesday night.

The effort of a new gang of extortionists to "muscle in" on the king's ransom reported ready for payment was disclosed by Chief of Police Albert T. Clark and Manager of Safety Carl S. Milliken after day-long investigation of a frantic appeal, purporting to come from Bower, directing his wife to pay the ransom this afternoon.

PROTEST NORDBYE APPOINTMENT; CITE CHARGE GRAND JURY

CLAIMS NORDBYE ISSUED GRAND JURY "A DELIBERATE AND PLANNED CHARGE"

Washington, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Citation of Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye's charge to a grand jury in the Minnesota "fur farms fraud" case in 1930 was made before a senate sub-committee today in protest against his appointment as a federal judge in Minnesota.

E. G. Chapman of Minneapolis, a member of the first grand jury which considered the case, introduced a letter signed by two members of the succeeding grand jury and expressing the belief that Judge Nordbye had issued them "a deliberate and planned charge, intended to limit the activities of the grand jury," and that the first appointment of foreman also worked to that end.

The signers of the letter were F. G. Johantgen and A. P. Olson.

Chapman testified that pressure had been brought to bear in the first grand jury to drop the investigation. He submitted a letter from Foreman Brackett of the first grand jury saying that Foreman Tenney of the second body told him he did not propose to have his grand jury take up any case with a political angle such as that of the fur farm case.

Chapman stated that Gov. Olson of Minnesota, then county attorney for Hennepin county, told the first grand jury it had no jurisdiction over officials whose principal place of business was in St. Paul, in another Ramsey-county.

HAWKS COMPLETES FIRST LAP ATTEMPT TO BREAK RECORD

REACHES VANCOUVER AND IMMEDIATELY TURNS BACK TOWARD OAKLAND

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Captain Frank Hawks, attempting a round trip speed flight between Mexico and Canada, completed the first half of his venture at 11:02 a. m. today when he circled above the airport here and then headed back south again.

Capt. Hawks required six hours and 51 minutes for his flight from Agua Caliente, Mexico, to Vancouver. He was clocked at the start at 4:11:15 a. m. En route here he refueled at Oakland and Portland.

He planned to stop at Portland on the return trip to refuel rather than stop here and be delayed in customs clearance.

Hawks failed by 11 minutes to break the record of six hours and 40 minutes for a flight from Agua Caliente to Vancouver held by James Weddell of New Orleans. The return flight was accomplished in 7 hours, 48 minutes and 31 seconds by James Goodwin Hall of New York. There is no existing round trip record for the flight. Hawks hopes to set one of less than 14 hours.

BANKERS AGREE ON EXTENSION PRIVATE CREDITS TO GERMANY

INTERNATIONAL EXPERTS IN ACCORD ON PLAN TO FREE "FROZEN" OBLIGATIONS

Berlin, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Agreement for a one year extension of private credits "frozen" in Germany—in which American interests are estimated at $800,000,000—was reached by international bankers here today reportedly without foreseeing any rate for further repayment.

The bankers negotiating an extension of the present "stand still agreement" were in accord on most of the important points. Germany's private indebtedness, including obligations not mentioned in the standstill agreement, is estimated at around $2,570,000,000.

The agreement was signed by the heads of various delegations today. It will be submitted to national banking committees for approval.

According to sources usually well informed on international finance, the agreement provided a one year prolongation of the "standstill arrangement" under which foreign bankers agreed not to withdraw investments from Germany until March, 1932. The extension might be cancelled, however, if Germany declares a moratorium.

The agreement called for appointment of a committee on which the creditors would be represented. It would confer with the reichsbank every three months regarding the feasibility of repayment. The reichsbank could refuse to pay if German currency was endangered.

PROGRESSIVES SEEK FORCE EMERGENCY MEASURE IN SENATE

WISCONSIN PROGRESSIVES GAIN SUPPORT OF INDEPENDENT WHO DEFEATED FIRST BILL

Madison, Wis., Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Supported by an independent who aided in defeating their original $17,000,000 program, senate progressives sought today to force their $12,000,000 relief bill into the assembly, where it could be chosen to replace the progressive-regular republican $7,000,000 compromise.

The $12,000,000 bill, advanced by progressives with the aid of Sen. Philip E. Nelson, Maple independent, appeared certain of approval of the progressive-controlled assembly, because of its close similarity to the governor's compromise.

It provided taxation of dividends and money lost in capital investments, both principles of the program advocated by Gov. Philip F. La Follette. Its chain store tax and one to 30 per cent surtax on individuals' incomes would raise approximately $12,000,000. Half of which would go for direct relief. Of the remainder, $500,000 would be used in a reforestation program, and $5,500,000 would be distributed for use by localities either for relief or to reduce property taxes $1 per $1,000 valuation.

A bill awaiting signature of Gov. La Follette today would tax consumers as well as dealers in oleomargarine, butterine and similar dairy products substitutes.

I. C. C. AUTHORIZES HIKE RAIL FREIGHT RATE GRAIN TRAFFIC

RAILROADS CAN PUT NEW RATES INTO EFFECT BY GIVING 10 DAYS NOTICE

Washington, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—The Interstate Commerce commission today authorized railroads to put into effect on 10 days notice, higher freight rates on grain shipments in the west.

The authorization was in accordance with the recent supreme court decision which held that the carriers to present evidence of changed economic conditions before insisting on a lowered grain rate schedule.

The new rates will be the same as were in effect in July 31, 1931, before the reduction ordered by the Interstate Commerce commission. Railroads fought the lowered rates on the ground they would result in an annual loss of revenue of $20,000,000.

Chairman Porter and Commissioner McManamy voted against the 10-day notice and favored the statutory 30 days. The railroads had asked to be permitted to put the higher rates into effect on five days notice.

FARRELL DECLARES STATE DEMS WILL IGNORE SMITH BOOM

STATE ORGANIZATION TO PAY LITTLE ATTENTION TO UNIT ORGANIZED TO DRAFT SMITH

St. Paul, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—J. J. Farrell, chairman of the state democratic central committee, today said that the state organization "would pay little or no attention" to the organization formed to draft Al Smith for a presidential race.

More than 200 residents of Stearns county and St. Cloud met yesterday and organized a "draft Smith for president in 1932 club." James R. Bennett, Jr., was elected president. It was Bennett's original suggestion that Smith be drafted.

Farrell attacked Bennett and said that the state democratic organization would support any candidate it was believed had a good chance of winning the presidency.

Referring to Bennett, who had attacked the candidacy of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, Farrell said:

"It is my belief that the Minnesota democracy will pay little or no attention to the words of a Hearst democrat and a Schall republican in organizing a draft boom for any one for president."

JAPAN STRENGTHENS WAR CRAFT FORCES IN EFFORT TO CRUSH CHINESE BOYCOTT

(Copyright, 1932, by United Press) Shanghai, Jan. 23.—(U.P.)—Japan strengthened its war craft forces off the Shanghai bend today and landed an additional 500 marines here in its effort to crush China's anti-Japanese boycott of goods.

Equipped with all accoutrements of war, the marines were put ashore from a Japanese cruiser, which with four destroyers had anchored here today to reinforce four other ships already lying ominously in the roadstead.

Shanghai saw in these maneuvers a Japanese threat to carry out its warning of "drastic naval action" if satisfaction were not given for recent anti-Japanese demonstrations. But underlying it, Shanghai realized that Japan was really aiming at China's anti-Japanese boycott.

The marines, bringing the Japanese complement to 1,400, were quartered on private Japanese property after being refused space on the volunteer corps range.

Meantime at Nanking, about 70 miles distant, there were signs of possible hostilities. Trenches were dug and sandbag barricades thrown up at strategic points. Some Japanese women and children were quitting Nanking.

The immediate cause of the Japanese moves was a Japanese demand for satisfaction for anti-Japanese demonstrations which were followed this week by Japanese outbursts against Chinese and their property and by the killing of one Japanese, two Chinese and the injuring of others, including British police.

An apology was demanded of two Shanghai papers for alleged insults to the Japanese but one of the papers had moved its plant when a Japanese officer today sought to obtain his satisfaction.

Japanese destroyed two Chinese factories and the Japanese element claimed justification for this outburst because of the previous anti-Japanese manifestations.

American and British authorities promptly conferred yesterday over the menace, with the result that after the session, American Consul General Edwin Cunningham announced:

"The Japanese must stay out of the settlement. If they stay out, there won't be any trouble."

The Yankee statement, backed by a cool, firm attitude of the British, apparently gave some pause to the Japanese, but the spectacle of the newly arrived Japanese ships off Shanghai still spelled a threat of serious trouble.

A 30-pound Northern pike, speared in Big Pelican lake by W. E. Thorpe, proprietor of Pine Lodge on Lake Edwards, was on exhibition here today in the Model Meat Market.

Game preservationists look upon the prize fish as good riddance to the waters of the lake. District Game Warden A. P. Cardle was of the opinion that a 30-pound fish would eat 75 times its weight of smaller fish during a year. He said a 30-pound Northern pike could enjoy swallowing a five-pound fish. He estimated the fish's age at 20 years.

TOPSY-TURVY SOCIETY--

"I don't want to go back home. It's no fun having everything you want and having it handed to you just for the asking. I want to work and do interesting things."

That was what a girl of 15 said the other day when police found her in a working girls' rooming house in Buffalo. She had run away from her home in a mid-western city more than a month before—her parents are well-to-do—and had been working as a salesgirl in a five-and-ten-cent store.

The whole story, while it is rather appealing, proves nothing much, except that our world is a trifle topsy-turvy. The present is a time when there are a good many millions of men who cannot get work of any kind, and who would welcome nothing so much as having everything they wanted for a little while. And yet this variation of the perennial story of the "poor little rich girl" pops up, in the midst of depression and unemployment, to remind us that things are woefully uneven and unfair.

And it is, perhaps, one of the sharpest indictments against a system that permits idle wealth and desperate poverty to exist side by side.

If the people who have, in abundance, knew precisely where they were going, and were able to use their leisure so as to get the utmost out of it in human values, it might be possible to look on unemployment and poverty as necessary evils. If our social system flowered at the top in a spacious and invigorating life of ideals and accomplishments, as the social system of England did a century ago, we could forgive it the misery at the bottom.

But it doesn't. This youngster—incidentally, she sounds like a thoroughly likable and admirable girl—found it more fun to live in a cheap rooming house and plug away as a salesgirl than to live at home. The society world offered her nothing she could put her teeth in. Even at 15, she was wise enough to see it.

Her experience is an ironic commentary on the working of our whole social framework.

SPENDING STATE MONEY--

Everybody understands, by this time, the urgent necessity of wiping out the deficit in the federal treasury.

Unfortunately, the publicity this deficit has received has made governmental economy seem to be almost exclusively a federal affair. The part that it should play in state governments has been overlooked.

It is odd that this should be so; for over-spending at the state capital will hit the average citizen much more quickly, and painfully, than will over-spending at Washington.

A business man, for instance, may pay Uncle Sam $20 a year in income taxes, and he will kick like a steer if this rises to $30. But his state will collect an equal sum from him annually in gasoline taxes alone, and he will hardly know, offhand, whether the gasoline tax has gone up or down lately.

Similarly, if he owns his home, his state, city and county governments will collect from $200 to $500 a year from him. Carefree spending at the state capital can add $10 or $20 a year to that sum very easily. Yet he will pay little or no attention to what his legislature does, while he will groan piteously if Congress boosts his income tax.

All of this emphasizes the value of a survey made recently by the Alexander Hamilton Institute showing how state indebtedness has increased in the last few years.

In 1915, for instance, the total indebtedness of all the state governments was approximately half a billion dollars. At the end of 1930 it was just under two and a half billion. In 1915 the states' debts amounted to $5.41 per capita; today they stand at $20.04.

Governmental economy, in other words, is something that state as well as national legislators need to think about. These figures show that ordinarily they fail to do so. If retrenchment is imperatively needed at Washington, the same is no less true at the ordinary state capital.

ADMITTING FOREIGN MATES--

The bill now pending before Congress which would admit to this country the foreign-born husbands or wives of naturalized American women and men is a measure that ought to be passed as a matter of course.

In general, the sentiment of the country is undoubtedly squarely in favor of strict immigration restrictions. We discovered, some years ago, that the melting pot wasn't functioning perfectly, and cutting down on immigration was nothing more than ordinary common sense.

But the law must be humane and reasonable. To admit to this country the mates of immigrants who have become citizens would not appreciably swell the total of incoming foreigners. And it would relieve a good deal of distress and avert a lot of unnecessary suffering and unhappiness.

QUESTION OF LENIENCY--

What should be done to a prisoner who saves the life of the officer who arrested him?

This unusual question has arisen in the province of Quebec, where five lumbermen were arrested by two detectives for trying to hang a boss they didn't like. The detectives marched their prisoners off to jail, and led them across a frozen river. Halfway over the river the ice broke and the two detectives went into the water.

Instead of leaving them there, the prisoners pulled them out—and then meekly accompanied them the rest of the way to jail.

Whether or not this will induce the court to be lenient with them is not yet apparent. The ordinary man will probably think that it ought to, at any rate.

THREE KINDS OF LOVE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

ANN and CECILY FEWICK have for years supported themselves, their younger sister, MARY-FRANCES, and their grandparents, known as "ROSA LIE" and "GRAND." Because of this financial responsibility, Ann, who is 28, is unable to marry PHIL ECKROVD, young lawyer to whom she has been engaged for eight years. Cecily, 22, loves BARRY MCKEEL, an engineer, but when he proposes she refuses to name their wedding date for the same reason.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXIII

"I CAN'T help it," said Mary-Frances. "My family would never in this world think of letting me."

"Your family? Cripes!" said Earl. "Say, listen, hon. I'd be the last man on earth to influence any girl, let alone you, against her parents' wishes or anything—see? But you ain't got a happy home life nor anything. And you're crazy about me; and I'm crazy about you—see? Now, look at it from that point of view. And leave me tell you this: A girl with your looks and shape could sure go far—travel see the world—"

"And come home," dreamed Mary-Frances, "and be rich and famous, and bring presents to everybody, and all would be forgiven, and—"

"Well, yeah, sure. Now, after I got that letter from Butt yesterday I got to thinking—see? I got to take his bus back—see? Well, what I was thinking was, why couldn't you and I just skip out, most any night now, in the bus together. No parting, nor keeping in touch through letters, like you said—"

"I didn't say 'keeping in touch through letters.'"

"Well, whatever it was. We'd be in Denver in sight of a week, and—"

"Elope?" stammered Mary-Frances. She had, of course, planned for six bridesmaids, and Ermintrude as maid of honor. But—

"Have you heard about Mary-Frances Fewick and that hand some, famous actor? It is—"

"Well—er—hon—I've been meaning for quite a while to tell you about that. As a matter of fact, I'm not fixed to get married for about four months yet—see? By the terms of my father's will I can't get married until I'm 23 years old—see?"

Whether or not Mary-Frances saw, she did not immediately say, and no wonder. Here was material for thought. She might have paused to doubt that Earl's father had ever made such a silly will—fathers rarely do so. She might have been considering Earl's age in connection with the possibility, at least, that he had been married and divorced and could not remarry before a year had elapsed. Or, granting her trustfulness, or credulity, or both, and without accusing her of cupiditry, she might have been speculating as to the extent of the fortune to which Earl was so soon to fall heir. Her answer finally spoken, may or may not be indicative of the thought processes that must say, Earl—"

"Now, hon, don't get sore. Don't do it. I shouldn't of talked that way. You'll have to excuse me. I just forgot myself. What I mean to say is—well, how I mean is—I need you, Frankie; honest I do."

The crown was heavy for her pretty young head. Her chin went down instead of up. Intuitively she knew that she had won the guerdon of womankind, "I need you." But the trouble was, though she was aware of its worth and unaware of its dangers, she did not want it. Agenor was not her grandpa.

"I don't see your point of view and all like that. But I'm a gentleman. If you know anything about me by this time you must know that. I'm a gentleman—see? And I give you my word of honor—my only word of honor—that I'd treat you square, see? Straight, see? And when I mean straight I don't mean maybe. And you won't be much more anxious than I am for the final—that is to say, for the final time to come when we can get married and everything open and aboveboard—see? Until that time comes, I'm telling you, Frankie—pals, buddies, absolutely. No more and no less, see?"

"Well," demurred Mary-Frances, "I'll think it over again. But I don't much believe I'd better go." "Think it over—huh? Say, listen, Frankie, if this was any other girl but you I'd think you was stringing me—see? Playing me for a sucker. I know you ain't. I know how pure and sincere and unselfish you are and everything. But just the same, you've been thinking this matter over for weeks now—see? We haven't got any more time to waste—see? Here it is June already, and we got to go to Denver, and get the guy there to fix us up on an act, and we got to rehearse it and get to Chicago in time for a decent booking in the fall. Now like I was saying. We're crazy about one another. All right. Why can't we take the bus and skip—most any night now? You could tell your folks you was spending the night with your chum and we'd beat it. I can't keep on sticking around here—see? Come on, now, Frankie? You ain't going to leave me cold—not after everything you've said and all, are you? Come on, now. Give me your promise and we'll seal it, like you say, with a sweet little kiss."

"Quite a little one," stipulated Mary-Frances.

Earl said, "Cripes!" when the kiss was over, but he went on to say, "Sometimes it kind of seems to me that you just take it all out in talking, Frankie."

"Earl!" said Mary-Frances. "Heart's dearest!"

"Sure. I know. I'm glad you're that type and all—see? But what must say, Earl—"

Also included in the Lesson-Sermon is the following quotation from the Christian Science textbook, "Science

WARRIORS SHOULD DEFEAT FARGO TONIGHT

Schmeling-Sharkey Sign for Bout in N. Y. June 16

BOTH TEAMS LOSE IN LAST NIGHT GAMES; STAPLES TILT CLOSE

CROSBY-IRONTON TOO STRONG FOR DAKOTA TEAM; LONG SHOT BEATS B. H. S.

Scouts who witnessed Crosby-Ironton defeat Fargo high 29-21 at the range floor last night expressed the belief that Brainerd high will win over the North Dakota team here tonight. The game will start a few minutes past 9 p. m. to permit those working in stores to attend.

Brainerd, however, must be in good form to win, the scouts said, as the Fargo boys did not receive their share of the breaks last night.

B. H. S. Should Get Tip Off
The Crosby-Ironton-Fargo game simmered down to these facts important to the welfare of Brainerd tonight: Fargo's center is reasonably short and Brainerd should control the tip off.

Fargo played a man to man defense with a fast breaking offense which did not disturb the range's zone defense. Fargo was off shooting form which they may regain tonight.

Easy Shots Beat Warriors
Brainerd high lost to the Staples quint on the latter's floor last night 22-21. A long shot 30 seconds before the close of the game gave Staples victory. Brainerd's failure to sink one of three set up shots during the final seconds of play resulted in defeat.

Brainerd held a small lead throughout the majority of three quarters when the teams exchanged leads. Templeton and Smith were being practically all of the game, Foster being sent into the game in the final quarter. Gerry Wygle, Bob Wygle and Larson comprised the remaining other principals of the Brainerd squad.

In winning Staples hung up its tenth straight victory of the season.

Too Strong for Fargo
Crosby-Ironton had little trouble in defeating Fargo. The Rangers' second team played the fourth quarter.

Brainerd will use its first string in tonight's game. The team is expected to change its style of play to combat Fargo's man to man defense.

Use Bleachers Tonight
The high school band will be on hand and bleachers will be installed to take care of the large crowd expected. Lewis of Moose Lake will referee.

Doors at the Washington high school gym will be open at 7:30 p. m. A preliminary game will be played at 8 p. m.

In the preliminary game at Staples last night a Brainerd reserve team defeated Staples reserves by 18-5.

PETROLLE KAYOES RAN TO THREATEN CANZONERI'S TITLE

New York, Jan. 23.—(UP)—Billy Petrolle, long a challenger but never a champion, today ranked as the leading contender for the world's lightweight crown now won by Tony Canzoneri.

A six-round knockout victory over Eddie Ran, Polish welterweight, at Madison Square Garden last night stamped the Duluth, Minn., boxer as the outstanding challenger not only for the lightweight title but also for the welterweight championship held by Lou Brouillard of Boston.

Petrolle, who has wrecked the hopes of many aspiring youngsters, used a volley of hard rights and lefts to end the championship campaign of Ran.

Billy floored Ran three times in the opening round, once for the count of nine. A hard right to the face sent Ran to the canvas for a three count early in the round and another right sent him down again. This time he got up without a count but stepped into one of Billy's stinging left hooks and took the nine-count.

Petrolle continued the master in the early part of the second round, but just before the close, Ran drove home two hard rights. Ran continued his bombardment of rights in the third round—the only round he won—but late in the session Petrolle landed a left hook to the body that marked the beginning of the end for Ran.

From then on, Petrolle aimed for the body and punished Ran severely. One minute and 58 seconds after the sixth round began he drove home the right to the chin which sent Ran down for the count.

THREE TITLE BOUTS ON CARD OF NEXT WEEK'S FIGHTING

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(UP)—Three world's championship boxing matches will be held within the span of four days next week in the midwest as follows:

Gorilla Jones, Akron, O., negro, vs. Odoonne Piazza, Italy, for middleweight title at Milwaukee Monday night.

Christopher (Bat) Battalino, Hartford, Conn., vs. Freddie Miller, Cincinnati, for featherweight title at Cincinnati Wednesday night.
Lou Brouillard, Worcester, Mass., vs. Jackie Fields, Los Angeles, for welterweight title at Chicago Thursday night.

All three are scheduled for 10 rounds each.
The winner of the Jones-Piazza bout will be recognized as middleweight champion by the National Boxing association, the two finalists surviving a tournament conducted at Milwaukee. Several prominent middleweights including Vince Dundee, Ben Jeby, Dave Shade and Chick Devlin, did not enter the tournament. Jones is favored.

The other two bouts—Brouillard vs. Fields and Battalino vs. Miller—are legitimate title matches and the winners will be recognized universally as champions.

FOURTH PLACE FINISH VIEWED FOR BUCS ALTHOUGH CHAMPIONSHIP TIMBER AT HAND

New York, Jan. 23.—(UP)—Although he will have considerable championship timber to work with, George Gibson in his first season as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates can hardly hope to finish higher than fourth in the 1932 National league race.

The Pirates, big disappointment last season, appear to have been over-rated. Their chances of crowding the St. Louis Cardinals, New York Giants and Chicago Cubs out of the championship race are remote.

Pittsburgh lacks the proper balance for a peanant winner. The Pirates boast several outstanding players but other members seem to be below par. The Pirates are expected to bank almost entirely this season upon veterans. Ten rookies will report but no more than two are expected to be retained.

Gibson will be well fortified in pitching and outfielding strength. His big problem will be constructing an infield.

Ervin Brame, Larry French, Ray Kremer, Heinie Meine, Glenn Spencer, Steve Swetonic and young Charley Wood are capable veteran hurlers. Gibson may find some assistance for them from the following three rookies: William Harris, secured from Waco; Leon Chagnon, recalled from Fort Worth; and John Niggeling, purchased from Des Moines. Robert Osborne, part timer last year, also may help out.

Baseball's most famous pair of brothers, the Waners, will form the nucleus for the Pirate outfield. Both Paul and Lloyd fell off a bit last year but they still rank among the best outfielders in the circuit.

Adam Comorosky, James Mosoff, Forrest Jensen, veterans, and Stanley Schingo, Augustin Dugas, Lin Young, and Dave Barbee, rookies, are outstanding candidates for the other outfield post.

Harold (Pie) Traynor, still hailed as the best third baseman in the National league, is the only infielder sure of a job. Howard Crockless and Anthony Flet, who both looked promising last season, probably will battle with George Grantham for second base. Crockless also showed promise as a shortstop and may replace the veteran Tommy Thevenow if the latter is unable to shake off the slump that marked his play in 1931.

The first base job will be a wide open fight. Gibson may shift Paul Waner or Grantham to the post. Gus Suhr is the other leading candidate. Suhr slumped badly last year but appeared to be getting back in the stride which marked his 1930 play when the season closed.

Ed Phillips and Earl Grace are veteran catchers who will be back. Their chief competition is expected from two rookies—William Brenzel, purchased from the Mission club of the Pacific Coast league, and William Steinbeck, who was purchased from Birmingham, N. Y.

BRIEF CEREMONY FOLLOWS TEDIOUS, LONG CONFERENCE

New York, Jan. 23.—(UP)—Max Schmeling, heavyweight champion of the world, was en route to Germany today after signing contracts calling for defense of his title against Jack Sharkey of Boston, in New York June 16.

The papers were signed last night. The ceremony was brief, but it was preceded by one of the most tedious conferences in pugilistic history.

For more than 10 hours Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's manager, Jimmy Johnston, general manager of Madison Square Garden, Sharkey, his two managers, Jack Conway and Johnny Buckley, and enough lawyers to try every case in the land, argued over terms, site, movie rights, radio rights, and what have you.

It was finally agreed that: The fight should be held on the night of June 16, in New York.

That Schmeling should receive 37½ per cent, Sharkey 12½.

That Madison Square Garden should have an option on all engagements of both Schmeling and Sharkey up to and including September, 1933.

That both champion and challenger post a $25,000 guarantee at the Tuesday meeting of the New York boxing commission.

Gophers Stop Michigan Second Time on Ice, 1-0

St. Paul, Jan. 23.—(UP)—Concentrating mainly on defense the University of Michigan hockey team held the fast travelling Minnesota six to a single goal last night and the game ended 1 to 0 for Minnesota.

With Keith Crossman, star Wolverine center, injured, most of the offensive duties devolved upon Emerson Reid, but he was unable to make any threatening gestures alone. The Minnesota team won the first game of the series 3 to 0.

Laurie Parker, Minnesota wing, scored last night's goal.

Hogan, Root Reach Terms With Giants, Chicago

New York, Jan. 23.—(UP)—Frank (Shanty) Hogan, rated as one of the best catchers in the National league, yesterday accepted the 1932 contract offered him by the New York Giants.

Hogan's signing left the Giants with but two holdouts—Bill Terry, first baseman, and Freddie Fitzsimmons, pitcher.

Los Angeles, Jan. 23.—(UP)—Charley Root, leading pitcher of the Chicago Cubs, revealed today he would sign his contract for another season, satisfied with the terms offered, which he said were not reduced.

Agua Caliente Jockey Club Head Sells Horses

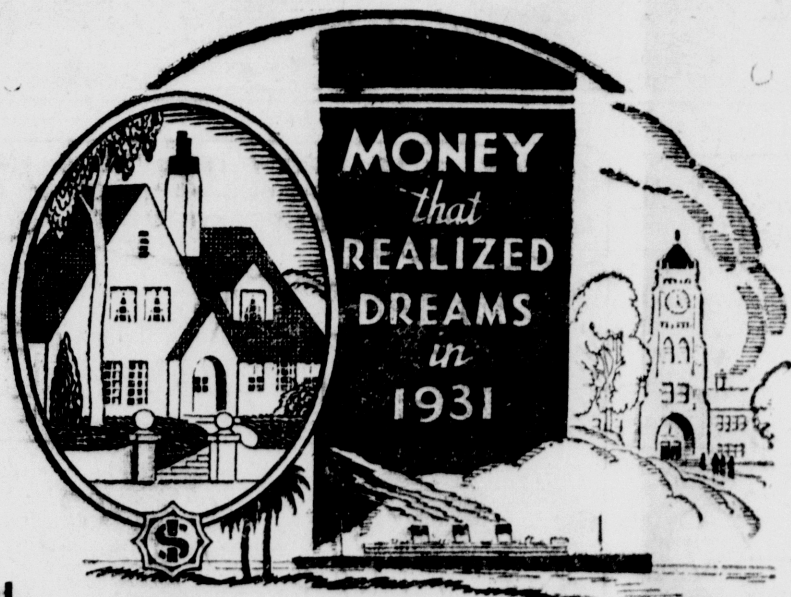

Agua Caliente, Mex., Jan. 23.—(UP)—James N. Crofton, president of the Agua Caliente Jockey club, planned today to quit racing as an owner after selling his stable of 14 horses.

Simultaneously with Crofton's announcement last night, Baron Long, who figured in the recent Linden Tree betting coup which cost him the privilege of racing his horses at the border, declared he was through as vice president of the club but expected to be reinstated as an owner and begin racing again soon.

Crofton explained he was quitting the competitive game because of criticism often stirred up when a track official races his own horses, although "this is a general practice."

WHEN LOVE COMES
"There are no homely women; there are only women who do not know how to be beautiful"

—A Famous French Adage

"Love is all" sings the poet. "Health before all" says the physician. Both are right. But before love achieves its greatest joys, health must lead the way.

In the charm of a beautiful woman in evening gown, street dress or bathing suit, in the smart alertness of the efficient stenographer or clerk, in the attractive vigor of well developed girls in shop or factory, in the brisk movements of mother or housewife is the secret—the true life story—of one who has life's greatest possession—Good Health! Yes, "when love comes," be prepared for it with a vibrant personality—the reflection of perfect health.

Do you feel 100% right now? Do you glow with that inner good health that is admired by all? Are you going through life with a smile, self-reliant and fearless? These are important questions, please don't dodge them. Be honest about the most precious things you possess—your health. If you are weak, tired and peevish and your legs ache, or if you are troubled with headaches, gas, indigestion, bad breath or constipation; if you are nearly "frantic" with shattered nerves then you need Vitalex the tonic through which a million people have found the path to perfect health.

Vitalex is really more than a tonic. It contains the body building and protective vitamins A, B & D. Your physician will tell you that you cannot hope to build up and maintain your health without vitamins; Vitaminized Vitalex will enable you to build up your health, vigor and beauty so that you will feel, act and look like a new person—attractive to all—attractive to the one.

The ailing, the weak, the convalescent, the run-down and dependent, those who hear inside whispers "you are slipping," weakened men, tired women, puny children—everybody may take advantage of the Vitalex 7-Day Wonder Test.

Thousands have reported such wonderful results from Vitalex that common sense directs us to sell it under an absolutely money-back guarantee. Try it for seven days and if you do not feel better, eat better, look better and sleep better return what is left and get a full refund of your money. What could be fairer? What could be more in your favor? Start taking Vitalex Tonic Tablets or Vitalex Tonic Liquid today. Next week you will thank us,
